

TITLE: SILVER ACCENTS
------------------------------

Description:
---------------------

Torch fired enamels are a great way to add color to your metal work. Silver foil will elevate those colors to another dimension. Through a process of firing layers of glass enamel, we will add silver foil for interest and glimmer. Students will have the opportunity to not only customize their color combinations, but also the shape of each piece.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

- |                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Kit will provide enough material for 1 pair of earrings (Silver foil, copper stock, use of enamels)</li></ul> |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Students are asked to bring the following:
--------------------------------------------

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Chain nose pliers</li><li>• Side cutters</li><li>• Wood dap with channels</li><li>• #2 paint brush</li><li>• 5 pages of any magazine</li><li>• Scissors</li><li>• Fine Tweezers</li><li>• Metal hole punch</li><li>• Tooth brush (used is ok)</li><li>• Magnifying glasses and Ott light as needed</li></ul> |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

**Please note that kit prices are quoted on the $75/market, should the market rise above $80 additional fees may apply.